EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

The examiner of your application has changed. To aid in correlating any papers for this application, all further correspondence regarding this application should be directed to Group Art Unit 1648, Examiner Salvoza.

An extension of time under 37 CFR 1.136(a) is required in order to make an examiner's amendment which places this application in condition for allowance. During a telephone conversation conducted on August 25, 2005, applicant's attorney Paul Zagar requested an extension of time for one MONTH(S) and authorized the Director to charge Deposit Account No. 04-0100 the required fee of $120.00 for this extension and authorized the following examiner's amendment. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 35. (currently amended) A method for making a human dendritic cell capable of eliciting an immune response to EBV-infected cells, which method comprises contacting [a] an isolated human dendritic cell with isolated EBNA-1 ex vivo.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: This amendment prepares the claims for allowance and overcomes the previous references and remaining 35 U.S.C. 103(a) rejection. The amendment finds support in the specification, which discloses EBNA-1 specific T-cell recognition of EBV-infected B-cells. CD4+ T cell lines recognized dendritic cells infected with a vaccinia virus EBNA-1 construct, and EBNA-1 specific T-cells recognized and killed EBV-transformed B-cells (Specification, line 44, lines 12-19). These findings have been supported by independent laboratories in the later Fu et al. reference (Fu et al., J Clin Invest. 2004;114(4):542-550, abstract) disclosing a CD4+ T-cell response elicited by vaccination of mice with EBNA1 peptide-loaded dendritic cells.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
